

Framework for reporting identified practices

Partner: Safety Region Zuid-Holland Zuid

	Section	Indication of Content
1	Title of the practice	Natura2000 in the Netherlands
2	Precise theme/ issue tackled by the practice	The management plan as an instrument. To reach the Natura2000 goals by cooperation between stakeholders. To unite organisational goals.
3	Objectives of the practice	The overall objective: To augment nature in Europa. (1+1>2) Specific objectives: To draw up and explain (the use of) the management plan in relation with safety and incidents and safety partners and stakeholders.
4	Location	The Netherlands.
5	Detailed description of the practice	In the Netherlands the stakeholders draw up the management plan together. In this plan the risks and measures are mentioned. European and national laws and regulations are the basis of this plan.. Economic, recreational and other functions will be optimised within the valid nature regulations.
6	Evaluation	The major elements of the implementation of Natura 2000 in The Netherlands is one of the objectives of the presentation. The other is an answer to the question how to reach these goals. The management plan is an instrument to get together partners en stakeholders to combine effort on the long term.
7	Lessons learnt from the practice	Requirement to success is: 1. Cooperation between stakeholders to draw up the management plan (and pinpoint the overall goals) 2. Unify interests
8	Contact information	H.R. Varkevisser hr.varkevisser@vrzhz.nl +31653812511
9	Other possible interesting information	http://ec.europa.eu/environment/nature/natura2000/index_en.htm